

Graduate Trainee

Introduction

The Graduate Trainee will be responsible for delivering agreed modules within a project. (A module could be an element of documentation, PLC code, SCADA configuration, testing works, Hardware Design , CAD etc.)

It is recognised that training and support will be required to assist in delivering agreed modules.

Role

- Report to the Senior Engineer as agreed per project

Responsibility

- Undertake programming and configuration functions
- Assist in the development of project documentation

Objectives

- Comply with QA procedures
- Deliver works within agreed time-scales
- Identify deviations from agreed functionality & notify Senior Engineer/Project Manager

Functions

Functions will typically include the following:

- Development of project modules
- Contribute and develop project documentation
- Involvement in full integrated system testing
- Involvement in customer acceptance testing
- Involvement in variation and rework